

DESERTED CAT ON GOULD STEPS.

Emaciated Maltese for a Week Has Attracted Attention of People Passing Edwin's Fifth Avenue Home.

IT MAY BELONG THERE.

Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Every Week in Summer Picks Up Scores of Abandoned Pets.

Alone on the steps of the Edwin Gould house at No. 7 West Fifty-sixth street a gray and white cat has lived for more than a week past. She may have lived there since the Goulds left the house and went to their country home, but for the past week she has attracted the attention of passers-by who recognize the emaciated maltese cat a pet that has seen better days.

The cat is to be seen nearly every day. She takes her place on the stoop or the window sill of the deserted house and tries to peer in. There she sits until chased away by some stray dog or some of the well-fed dogs that are being taken out for an airing.

The cat apparently belongs to the Goulds or some of their wealthy neighbors.

Pussy either was forgotten or perhaps out of the way and out of mind when the houses in the block were shut for the summer.

For several days she kept the neighborhood awake by her cries. Lately she seems to have settled down for a long wait until her owners return.

Cats according to the officers of the S. P. C. A. are more frequently abandoned than any other pet. Many of the rich families who leave the city and its heat for the summer board their cats and others take them away with them.

Frequently because it is the fault of a rule of the cat herself she stays behind and starves. The summer through, poor cats in Central Park or lives off the garbage pails that are set out in places remote from the original place of residence.

Sometimes cats that are not put out to board and are practically caged escape and in a day or two they are back at the old house. These cats remain, are killed by dogs, starve to death or live in some catch-as-catch-can manner until the family comes back.

The S. P. C. A. has only one course with stray cats. When they are caught they are taken to the society shelter and unless they are claimed or some one looking for a pet comes forward and agrees to take them, they are put into the sink-lined box where after a short time the gas is turned on and they are asphyxiated in a few minutes.

Cats by the score picked up in the summer are killed every week.

SLAYER ONE OF JAIL-BREAKERS

"Sheeney" Harris, One of Gang That Killed a Cobleskill Watchman, Gets Away from Schoharie "Lockup."

SCHOHARIE, N. Y., Sept. 8.—"Sheeney" Harris, one of the gang of five that murdered Night Watchman Matthew Wilson at Cobleskill, two years ago, and two other prisoners, Edward Caine, colored, aged thirty-seven, and James Kelly, aged twenty-one, both charged with burglary, dug their way out of the Schoharie County Jail. A reward of $50 each has been offered by the Sheriff for the capture of the men.

The jail is a comparatively new brick building, and was supposed to be proof against breaking. The escape was not discovered until the jail was opened this morning.

Harris is well-known as a desperate criminal, and the police believe he will make every effort to leave this vicinity, where he is well-known to the police of many places. It was largely through his testimony as State's evidence, that conviction was secured against "Whitney" Sullivan, William O'Connor, alias "Goat-Horn," "Canada Blackie," and "Dublin Ned" Jackson. The first two have been serving sentences, one of life, and the other of ten years.

The fifth member of the gang, one Ballard, was killed a year or more ago in the South, in the premature explosion of a nitro-glycerine charge with which he was blowing open a safe in an attempted burglary.

Harris was to have been put upon his own trial at the October term of court.

WIFE SHOT WHILE
SHIELDING HUSBAND.

Throws Herself Between Him and Man with Revolver and Receives Bullet in Her Side.

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—Rushing in front of her husband to protect him from an attack by an armed man, a young wife last night received a bullet in her right side, and physicians say she will die.

WOMAN LEAPS FROM A FERRY

Plunges Overboard from Crowded Greenpoint Boat as It Enters Tenth Street Slip and Is Almost Crushed by Paddles.

As a Greenpoint ferryboat was entering the slip at the foot of East Tenth street to-day a thousand and more passengers crowded together on her forward end set up a cry of horror to see a young woman on the end of the pier put her arms in front of her and leap into the river. She fell directly in the path of the steamer, and it did not seem that the boat's way could be stopped in time to save her from the wheels.

The woman's skirts held her on the surface and the boat came to a stop and with all her power backed clear at the instant when it felt as if the woman must be cut to pieces by the paddles. The excited passengers all ran forward and the boat became uncontrollable, with her stern far out of the water.
The deck hands had a hard time fighting them back from the rails, but finally succeeded, when Andrew Laws threw a life preserver at the end of a heaving line to the woman, who had evidently changed her mind about drowning and was yelling lustily for help.

The would-be suicide caught the preserver with avidity, and was pulled aboard the boat, Deckhand Daws forgot over the steamer's side on a ladder to lift her from the water.

All this had been seen from the store, and by the time the boat was moored an ambulance was on hand, and into this the young woman was bundled and sent to Bellevue. She refused to give her name and there was nothing on her person which would give a clue to her identity. She is about twenty-five years of age, and possessing in appearance, and her clothing is of the best material.

The would-be suicide is about twenty-five years old, 5 feet 8 inches in height, weighs 125 pounds, has fair complexion and brown hair. She was dressed in a black suit, white shirt-waist and white straw sailor hat. The only thing in her possession was a purse in which was a cigar-holder and two keys.

CHIVALRIC BOY IS
WOUNDED UNTO DEATH

Young Kirk, Accidentally Shot by Pool, Prevented His Remorse-ful Friend's Suicide.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 8.—Romney Pool and Herman Kirk, white boys, fifteen years old, were playing with pistols to-day at Pool's home, two miles from here. After Pool had reloaded his pistol to shoot at the target it was accidentally discharged. The bullet passed through Pool's thumb, entered Kirk's abdomen in front and passed out of his back.

Terrified and filled with remorse, Pool placed his revolver against his own head and was about to pull the trigger when Kirk, frightfully wounded as he was, sprang at him and seized his gun.

Startled by Pool's cries for help, neighbors ran into the house. They found Kirk on the floor, both pistols in his grasp, while Pool was staggering around the room beating his breast, shrieking and weeping.

"It was an accident, it was an acating Pool from all blame, he tried to soothe his companion's grief. Kirk's condition is extremely critical.

DEFENSE FUND ABOLISHED.

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—Following the dis-rect charge that money thus far collected by assessment from the various labor unions of Chicago had been wasted and consumed in salaries, the Chicago Federation of Labor abolished its defense fund committee after a stormy session.

X-RAYS MAKE HIM HEAR.

OXFORD, Sept. 8.—By means of X-rays a small stone imbedded for years in the ear of Delbert Blakely Maseena, sixteen years old, was removed at the City Hospital to-day. The boy had lost the sense of smell and hearing.

ATTACKS HIS WIFE AND LEGLESS GIRL

Michael McDonald Is Held in $300 Bonds on Charge of Assaulting Spouse and Daughter.

Michael McDonald, of No. 575 Baltic street, Brooklyn, is being held in $300 bonds for an alleged assault on his wife and little legless daughter. It was the story of the latter that moved the Magistrate to pity and to administer a stern rebuke to the father.

"Papa was angry," she said, "because mamma sent the children to tell him supper was ready.

"When he came in he took a pot off the stove and threw some hot potatoes at mamma. Then he scattered the rest of the supper over the floor. Mamma tried to stop him and he struck her in the face. Papa caught me by the arms and threw me into the hall and tried to push me downstairs. I fell down three steps, but mamma reached through the railing and caught me."

Grace McDonald was run over by a trolley car at Fifth avenue and Second street and both her legs were cut off below the knee. She was awarded a pension for $10,000 against the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company. The father was appointed guardian of the girl's estate, and the mother accuses him of having drawn the interest and probably lost it by betting on horse races.

hundred hogsheds, crates and cases just opened late last

September Sale of Reliable Kitchen Things

Of the five thousand, or thereabouts, of housekeeping things shown constantly in our Basement, one thing can always be said: "There is not a single article that is not thoroughly good and practical."

There is a very broad ambition in many stores to make catch-penny prices on egg-beaters that won't beat, on clothes pins made to tear clothes, on blacking cases that will shake apart almost with the first shoe polished.

This September Sale enters no such competition.

But it does offer large economies on such Housekeeping Helps as careful housekeepers and painstaking servants will appreciate.

Our buyers have spent months searching for good things, that could be secured at real economies, and planning for this occasion.

Some of the chief groups are told of below:

Turquoise Blue
Imported Enameled Ware

We got a large concession by taking the "run of the kiln." That means perfect goods without the seconds picked out. And so some of the pieces have a slight chip here and there in the enamel. Not a hurt that hurts and the price is less than half. Each piece is steel, double-coated with turquoise blue enamel, white-lined.

The Annual Sale of Blankets

Introducing the Season With Economies on Best Kinds Made

This movement is confined to new, regularly made merchandise. It has none of the spectacular characteristics of most large trade movements at special prices.

The lowering of prices is brought to pass simply by the dynamic power of vast purchases for our two large stores, together with the early preparation that enabled the mills to produce the blankets most economically, without rush or chance of loss.

Then we are content with a narrow profit because of the largely increased distribution secured early in the season by reason of these low prices.

Facts of two sorts are very necessary to insure your getting exactly what you want in Blankets. We give them fully and frankly, as to the proportion of cotton, if any; and the exact sizes—not in deceptive "quarters," but in exact inches.
